About Routes

Helping the route development community do business

The Routes business allows the world's route development community to meet regularly, whether at our live events throughout the year, or online every day. Airlines, airports and aviation stakeholders including tourism authorities, economic development agencies and commercial suppliers are part of this community.

The core focus varies from route expansion to route development to future planning.

This document will provide you with all the tools you need to plan your route development calendar and activities for 2014.

The Routes business, which is part of UBM, is focused entirely on aviation route development and the company portfolio includes events, media and online businesses.

Routes also has other key industry media including an online weekly newsletter, The HUB and the world air service development magazine, Routes News.

Routes Americas

San Salvador, El Salvador

23 – 25 February 2014

The 7th Routes Americas, the largest route planning event for the entire Americas region, will take place in San Salvador, El Salvador and is hosted by the country's three state institutions related to the national development of the airline industry; the Civil Aviation Authority; the International Airport and the Ministry of Tourism.

Routes Americas attracts key players in the airline and airport industry from the North, Central, South America and the Caribbean supported by Tourism Authorities (CVB's).
